KANSAS CITY (AP)—The confessed kidnap-killers of Bobby Green today were returned under heavy guard to Kansas City, where the abduction of the 6-year-old boy took place just 15 days ago.

Drug addict Carl Austin Hall and his woman friend, Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, were brought here from St. Louis. They had been held in St. Louis since their arrest a week ago.

No Clue To $300,000

The pair's departure from St. Louis was kept secret. They were brought here by automobile in custody of U. S. Marshal Omar Schnatmeier. Both were manacled.

Officers placed them in 11th floor detention cells in the county courthouse jail.

Officers who made the trip here with them said Hall still insisted he doesn't know what happened to the missing $300,000 of the $600,000 ransom paid.

Hall admitted Monday he fired a pistol bullet into the boy's head after driving him across the Missouri-Kansas state line from Kansas City shortly after the kidnapping.

Marsh May Be Dead

The government filed charges here under the Lindbergh kidnapping law immediately after the couple signed confessions. A federal grand jury will be convened to hear the evidence.

The admissions cleared the missing Thomas John Marsh, 37, ex-convict named earlier by Hall as Bobby's killer.

Conviction carries a possible death penalty. The FBI said Hall and his woman friend admitted they dug Bobby's shallow grave behind Mrs. Heady's St. Joseph, Mo., home before the kidnapping.

Marsh's whereabouts still remained a mystery. There has been speculation he may be dead.

Pennsylvania Gives Birthday Party For Eisenhower In Tent

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower gets birthday greetings from Pennsylvania Republicans tonight to cheer him on a week's fence-building trip westward.

The President, who won't actually be 63 until Wednesday, planned to leave Washington with Mrs. Eisenhower and staff members early in the afternoon for a 128-mile drive to Hershey, Pa., for a $100-a-plate birthday dinner in a circus tent there tonight.

The President evidently had shaken off an attack of flu which kept him in the White House Sunday.

After a White House birthday dinner Wednesday night, Eisenhower leaves by train on a trip that will carry him into Ohio, Missouri, Kansas, Louisiana and Texas. He returns to Washington next Tuesday.

The seven days of that trip will be devoted largely to the pressing political problems of drought, low farm prices, public power and patronage. On the first three, the Democrats have made vigorous attacks on his administration's policies. Some Republicans are grumbling about patronage.

Tonight's two-ring appearance and his week's mingling with the people in the central states will be watched keenly by politicians to determine if the Eisenhower popularity is such as to lessen out-spoken discontent with some of his administration's actions.

Eisenhower's visit to Hershey is part of a hoopla fund-raising rally, with 800 birthday cakes, including a mammoth one of wood with a cake insert for the President to carve. Some 6,500 of the party faithful were expected to kick in $100 each.

In Kansas City, Mo., the President will breakfast Friday with governors from some of the 13 drought-hit states.

Memphis Twins Married At 14

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Joyce and Janice Smith, pretty 14-year-old identical twins, have swapped bobby socks for aprons to begin careers as housewives.

They were married in a double ceremony Friday at Hernando, Miss., while their mother thought they were on a sorority slumber party.

Joyce married Freddie Ray, 17. Janice's husband is Frank Phillips, 16. The twins and Freddie were in the ninth grade. Frank the 10th. They withdrew from school Monday.

The brides' mother, Mrs. O. S. Smith, said the parents have agreed there will be no annulments. She said the young couples had been dating for some time.

Mrs. Smith said the "boys are trying to get jobs, and my girls will get jobs too."

For the time being, she said, the youngsters are living with the families of the husbands.

Ionia Man Sentenced For Gun Assault On His Estranged Wife

IONIA (AP)—Foster Kenny, 48, former Ionia County register of deeds and athletic director at Michigan Reformatory here, faces the next 5 to 10 years in prison.

Kenny was sentenced Monday after he pleaded guilty to felonious assault in the shooting of his estranged wife when a reconciliation attempt fell through five months ago. Kenny attempted to take his own life at the same time.

Kenny pleaded innocent a month ago to a charge of assault with intent to commit murder, but changed it when the charge was lessened.

Kenny is a former Cassopolis school principal. His wife is the former Mrs. Velma Ness of Greenville.

Stove Designer Dies

DETROIT (AP)—The man who made the pattern for "the biggest stove in the world" is dead. He was Ferdinand J. Kuhn, who succumbed at the age of 80 Sunday.

The stove, towering around three stories in height, stands beside the Detroit-Michigan Stove Co. plant on Jefferson Avenue and long has been a tourist attraction.

Dulles To Confer With French And British Officials

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles will meet with the British and French foreign ministers in London Friday for conferences on Trieste, Korea, Russian relations and other world problems.

A joint announcement of arrangements for the conference was made today in Washington, London and Paris.

Dulles will leave here Wednesday night. He expects to remain in London until Sunday.

State department officials said this was not an emergency session, and that there was no one overriding problems which made it necessary now.

World Wonders If Premier Tito Is Just Bluffing

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Trieste is the present European hot spot. Yugoslavia's President Tito threatens the Italians if they move in troops. Tito may be bluffing. The crisis may be solved short of shooting. Time will show.

The crisis began last Thursday when the United States and Britain said they'd pull their troops out of Trieste, let the Italians take over part of it.

Port Is Price

Trieste is both a city and an area, about 320 square miles. The city is a port on the Adriatic Sea and so a prize. The population, mainly in the city itself, is around 350,000. About 85,000 are Slavs, the rest Italians.

An ancient city, long tied in with Italy, Trieste in the 14th century placed itself under Austrian protection and remained part of the Austrian dominion, with the exception of a few years in the Napoleonic period, until 1918.

When Austria was defeated in World War I, the Western Allies awarded Trieste to Italy, which held it until World War II. Then Italy in turn, this time a German ally, was defeated.

Wisconsin Vote Test For GOP

By ARTHUR BYSTROM

SAU CLAIRE, Wis. (AP)—Observers saw a possible test of the Eisenhower administration today as voters selected a successor to the late Republican Rep. Merlin Hull of Black River Falls.

Both Republicans and Democrats are watching the election in the predominantly rural 11-county district as an indication of their future and especially as an indication of the popularity of the government's farm policies.

State Sen. Arthur L. Padrutz, 36, Chippewa Falls Republican, and Lester Johnson, 52, the Democratic Jackson County district attorney from Black River Falls, both stressed their opinions of the administration during their energetic campaigns.

The electorate, however, was apathetic and seemed only dimly aware of the possible national significance of the election.

As a result, the election may draw no more than 30,000 persons—less than 25 per cent of the district's estimated 150,000 eligible voters.

Republicans were confident of victory, on the strength of their past record—the district never has elected a Democratic congressman—and their intensive campaign on behalf of Padrutz and his platform of all-out support of the administration.

Korean Allies Firm On Barring Neutrals From Peace Meeting

By JOHN SCALI

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and its 16 Korean War partners stood firm today in a decision to bar neutral nations from the proposed Korean peace conference.

A formal message on behalf of the United Nations side, sent to Communist China and North Korea, offered to send an American representative to Panmunjom Oct. 26 to discuss the peace parity with Red officials.

The note stressed, however, that the U. N. representative would be prepared to discuss only "a time and place" for the peace conference.

In new notes over the weekend, Red China and North Korea had insisted anew that India, Indonesia, Burma, Pakistan and Russia be permitted to attend the peace talks as "neutrals." The U. N. took the position Russia could attend only if invited by Red China and North Korea.

Ohio Democrat Fills Senate Post Vacated By Death Of Bob Taft

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Democrat Thomas A. Burke, 54-year-old four-time mayor of Cleveland, today holds the Senate post vacated since the death of Robert A. Taft July 31.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio appointed Burke late Monday. It was a surprise announcement by the Democratic governor, who called his private secretary from Cleveland and told her to release the news.

Nixon Holds Balance

Lausche's selection of his close friend and long-time political ally gave the Democratic party a 48-47 edge in the Senate. The other senator is independent Wayne Morse of Oregon. Vice President Nixon holds the deciding vote should the Senate deadlock. Morse was elected as a Republican but later bolted the party in a hassle over policy.

The political prognosticators wonder now whether Lausche or Burke—or neither—will seek election in November 1954 for the remainder of Taft's unexpired term, which runs until Jan. 3, 1957.

Persons guessing Lausche would appoint the round-faced Irishman who declined to seek nomination for a fifth term as Cleveland mayor or reasoned it was the only logical appointment—that such an appointment would give Lausche and Burke the upper hand in upcoming Ohio gubernatorial and U. S. senatorial elections.

Popular At Polls

They figured Burke would step aside in 1954 if Lausche decided to seek the Senate seat—and that Burke might then try for governor.

The governor said he did not speak to Burke prior to the appointment.

"He had no commitments to me of any character whatsoever," Lausche said.

Burke, like Lausche, is popular at the polls. When Lausche resigned as Cleveland mayor in 1945 to become governor, he appointed Burke. Burke then was elected mayor in 1945, 1947, 1949 and 1951 by overwhelming majorities.

The other man was identified as Murray Spivak.

Spies Get Death

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—A military court in Communist Romania has sentenced 13 persons to death on spying and sabotage charges. Three other persons, including one woman, received prison terms ranging from 3 to 25 years.

The Communists, who want to interview the 7,800 Koreans and 14,500 Chinese POWs individually, presumably will begin the explanations by Thursday.

The UNC announcement that facilities had been completed paved the way for the delay-plagued explanations to get under way.

The Reds had steadfastly refused to meet with the POWs until the UNC completed new facilities. The explanations originally were scheduled to begin Sept. 26 but both sides rejected existing sites as inadequate.

The Communists, who want to interview the 7,800 Koreans and 14,500 Chinese POWs individually, presumably will begin the explanations by Thursday.

The UNC, however, has said it was in no hurry to start meeting with the 23 American, 1 Briton and 335 South Koreans who have refused repatriation.

Kremlin Claims Trieste Decision Violates Treaty

By ALEX SINGLETON

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, (AP)—Anti-Western violence increased today as angry Yugoslavia awaited Western reaction to President Tito's threats and notes designed to halt the transfer of northern Trieste to Italy.

With Washington showing no signs of backing down from the British-American decision to pull out of Zone A of the strategic territory, the mood of the tense Yugoslavs again grew ugly.

Violence Renewed

Demonstrators beat up an American student and a Yugoslav who dropped into the Belgrade office of the U. S. Information Service.

A reinforced ring of Yugoslav militia men surrounded both the USIS and British reading room buildings as mass street demonstrations continued.

A British spokesman said 1,000 to 1,500 "thugs" twice invaded the reading room and seized copies of the British News Bulletin, tearing them up and using them to make bonfires in the streets.

The renewal of violence followed a night of comparative calm although the American embassy reported that a Yugoslav woman employee had been beaten on her way home Monday night.

As a result, the embassy withdrew the large staff of natives employed by the USIS from duties involving direct contact with the public.

Americans Moved Out

Demonstrators Monday slugged the USIS director in Belgrade and broke his nose.

The Russians put their oar in the troubled Trieste waters Monday night, on the heels of Tito's bid for direct talks with the Western powers and his warning to the United Nations that the Anglo-American plans are a threat to peace.

In identical notes to Britain and the United States, the Kremlin declared the plan to give Italy the Allied-occupied zone—including the Adriatic port city of Trieste—was a "grave violation" of the Italian peace treaty.

Underlining the apparent U. S.-British determination to pull out, the first boatload of American servicemen's dependents left Trieste today. The troopship Geiger

Kingsford Plant Guard Refused

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams said today he had refused to assign state police to strike duty at the Kingsford Chemical Co. plant in Iron Mountain because local and state officials assured him there had been no breakdown of local law enforcement.

The Executive Office said Owen Pyle, company president, had appealed to the governor for state police protection, declaring he had been forced to close his plant Oct. 2 because of inadequate police protection.

Asserting "this does not appear to be in accord with the facts," Williams said the prosecutor of Dickinson County, the Dickinson County Sheriff and the attorney general's office all report there has been no failure of police protection at the plant.

The governor said state police are under orders to assist at any time there is violence with which local law enforcement officers are unable to cope.

Cash Asked By 16 In Kidnaping At Kansas City

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—At least 16 different persons represented themselves as the kidnapers of little Bobby Greenlease and demanded ransom ranging from $5,000 to $600,000.

This was disclosed in an interview Monday night with Robert L. Ledterman, Tulsa auto dealer and business associate of the 6-year-old murdered child's father, Robert C. Greenlease of Kansas City.

Up In Millions
Ledterman said he arrived in Kansas City at 6 p. m., the day of the crime.

Thirty minutes later he said the family received a special delivery letter from Carl Austin Hall, who with Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady confessed the kidnapping, demanding $600,000 ransom.

It stipulated that $400,000 was to be in $20 bills and $200,000 in $10 bills, the money to be obtained in equal portions from all 12 federal reserve banks.

Fifteen other parties called demanding ransom from $5,000 to $250,000, Ledterman said. "Had Mr. Greenlease complied with all of the demands, he would have paid 1½ million dollars in ransom. But we knew which of the callers was the right one."

Gangsters Threaten
As it was, the $600,000 was the largest ransom ever paid.

Complicating negotiations, he added, was a report from an underworld character that gangsters would intercept the money when it finally was delivered to the designated spot.

Ledterman recounted dealings with Hall and Mrs. Heady through numerous letters hidden at various spots in Kansas City, and by telephone.

Kaiser Reopens Big Auto Plant

DETROIT (AP)—Kaiser Motors Corp. plans to resume production of Henry J passenger cars Oct. 26 and will begin retooling workers Monday.

The big Kaiser plant at Willow Run, where automobiles and cargo planes used to come off parallel assembly lines, has been shut down since June 29.

Kaiser did not disclose when it would resume production of its larger Kaiser model cars, or say how many would be called back Oct. 26.

When the plant shut down approximately 4,500 were employed in the automotive division.

The government cancelled Kaiser's plant contract in June and it transferred some of its automotive work to the newly acquired Willis-Overland plant at Toledo. The Willow Run plant was shut down and the company refused to reopen until the CIO United Auto Workers Union renegotiated its contract.

The revised contract cuts down on the number of non-working union stewards and makes other changes generally favorable to management.

No Chiropractor Permits Missing

LANSING (AP)—Aud. Gen. John B. Martin declared today there is no truth to charges that some 200 state chiropractor licenses were missing.

The charge was made in support of a petition for an Ingham County grand jury investigation of the State Board of Chiropractor Examiners.

Martin said his auditors had checked every one of the 1,800-odd chiropractic licenses now in existence and found each of them accounted for.

He said his men found 48 license numbers unaccounted for in the board's records and that a search of files turned up four that had been mis-filed.

Martin said no trace could be found of the other 44 numbers. He said all disappeared prior to 1940. He reported however that "every renewal license can be traced back to an original number issued by the board, showing that none stem from the missing license numbers."

The Michigan Academy of Chiropractors, petitioner for the grand jury, had alleged that the 200 missing numbers represented licenses which had been sold or illegally issued to practitioners.

The Ingham County Circuit Court is holding the petition in abeyance pending the results of an attorney general's investigation of charges of licensing irregularity by the board.

Turnpike Killer Still At Large?

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—Is the phantom killer of the Pennsylvania Turnpike still at liberty?

John Wesley Wable, in Bernallillo County jail awaiting transport to the eastern state to face murder charges in the super-highway slayings, says he is.

"I want to go home to clear my name," he says. "Didn't kill nobody."

But New Mexico police remained mum about the story told by the 25-year-old Wable, captured Sunday night by officers at Belen, N. M., on a tip from two young women.

"You can say that the story is being checked by police in Pittsburgh, including my brother Matthew," said Undersheriff Walter Geis.

Three officers from Pennsylvania arrived in Albuquerque by plane today to take custody of Wable. He is charged in the slaying of truck drivers Harry F. Pitts, 39, of Bowling Green, Va., and Lester B. Woodward, 39, of Harrisburg, Pa., last July. He has waived extradition.

Geis said he had obtained a signed statement from Wable which included the name of the mysterious "other man" Wable says he thinks is the murderer. He said details of the statement differed somewhat from those given by Wable in interviews yesterday, but declined to amplify.

Costs In Delta For Courthouse Low In State

Cost per capita of Delta County "courthouse offices" in 1952 was the lowest of any county in Michigan, according to a financial report of Michigan county government in 1952, released by Aud. Gen. John B. Martin.

Per capita cost here was $2.97. The county with the highest per capita cost for "courthouse offices" was Lake, a county about halfway down the western part of the Lower Peninsula, with $9.02. Average county per capita cost in the state was $4.88.

Per capita costs for the same offices in some other U. P. counties were: Alger, $4.74; Schoolcraft, $6.49; Menominee, $4.50; Marquette, $3.61; Chippewa, $5.00; Gogebic, $6.24.

Keweenaw Most Costly
Taking all county expenditures into account, an Upper Peninsula county, Keweenaw, had the most expensive county government per capita in the state in 1952, — a cost of $99.32 per person. Least expensive county government was in Kent County, whose county seat is Grand Rapids. Cost in Kent was $16.59 per person.

Per capita cost of running Delta County was $21.93, an increase of $1.37 over 1951, when it cost $20.56 per person to run the county.

Costs per capita of running some other U. P. counties were: Alger, $31.20; Schoolcraft, $29.53; Menominee, $28.12; Marquette, $27.11; Chippewa, $26.22; Gogebic, $32.05.

Kalkaska County, a county near Grand Traverse Bay in the Lower Peninsula, spent the most on roads, $45.29 per capita; and Wayne (Detroit) and Ingham (Lansing) the least, $5.87 and $5.98. The average was $8.39.

Delta County spent $9.30 per person on roads, less than any other county in the Upper Peninsula, though Dickinson County spent almost as little with $9.33 per person.

Delta Health Cost $9.65
Amount spent on roads by some other U. P. counties were: Alger, $15.40; Schoolcraft, $13.90; Menominee, $17.06; Marquette, $11.18; Chippewa, $13.46; Gogebic, $14.61.

Keweenaw County had the highest per capita costs for health, welfare, and medical assistance in Michigan in 1952, with $23.79; and Iron County was second highest with $12.49. Lowest cost in this field was $3.58 in Ionia County (just east of Kent County.) Average was $8.12.

Delta County cost per capita in the health field was $9.65.

Costs per capita for health, welfare and medical assistance in some other U. P. counties were: Alger, $11.05; Schoolcraft, $9.13; Menominee, $5.62; Marquette, $11.50; Chippewa, $7.55; Gogebic, $10.32.

Some of the material in this story came from the Associated Press.

Kiwanis Club Hears About Activities Of Child Welfare Agency

Delta County has 33 boarding homes for children, and they are rated as very good by his department, Escanaba Kiwanis Club members were told Monday by Robert Drew, local representative of the Michigan Department of Child Welfare. The speaker outlined the work of his agency, which handles adoptions in addition to the placing of neglected children in boarding homes. Three welfare workers assigned to the district call regularly at these homes to check on children and their foster families. The cost to the state averages 82 cents a day for the upkeep of each child, Drew stated.

In addition to the supervision of boarding homes and adoptions the department also maintains a reporting system in courts, by which a checkup is kept on cases involving juveniles. In response to questions, Mr. Drew said that the state has no age limit on applicants for adoption and prospective foster parents are chosen only for their adaptability to care for the state wards which they wish to adopt.

Tracing the history of child welfare in Michigan briefly, the speaker said that the first step was the opening of a boys' vocational school in 1855, then the school at Coldwater in 1871. The present Michigan Children's Institute handles supervision of boarding homes, of which there were 5,533 in the state in 1949, caring for 7,050 children.

Mr. Drew was introduced by William Winkler, Kiwanis program chairman for the meeting Monday.

Nurse Is Jailed Here On Illegal Narcotics Count

Miss Fannie Dale Smythe, 26, a registered nurse, is held in jail here today on a charge of illegal possession of narcotics while an investigation of alleged theft of narcotics from St. Francis Hospital continues.

The nurse, who came to Escanaba four years ago from Peoria, Ill., was taken in custody at 1 a. m. Saturday at the hospital by Escanaba police. The theft was discovered Friday and a report was made to the Federal Narcotics Division of the U. S. Treasury and to Escanaba police.

Police with a search warrant entered the apartment of the nurse at 1421 Eighth Ave. S. at about the same hour the nurse was taken into custody at the hospital.

Following her arrest Miss Smythe signed a statement admitting the theft of narcotics from the hospital, said Glen S. Leonard, Escanaba safety director.

Agents of the Federal Narcotics Division and Michigan State Police are cooperating in the investigation. Arrival of a federal agent from Detroit was expected today.

The warrant was issued charging Miss Smythe with illegal possession of narcotics following consultations with Prosecuting Attorney Nicholas P. Chapekis. The investigation is continuing and it is not expected that Miss Smythe will be arraigned today, authorities said.

Search Continues For Missing Aged Hunter

Airplanes, a bloodhound, and searching parties had found no trace of Edward Downs, 77-year-old Limestone Township summer resident who has not been seen since he left home Sunday morning at 9 to go hunting, as of 1:30 this afternoon, Michigan State Police of the Marquette Post said.

Searchers found a spot in the woods where someone appeared to have bedded down during Sunday night, state police said. Four shotgun shells were found at the spot.

This morning at least 11 men were searching the woods and at least two more were en route.

Power Saw Has A New Function, It Routs A Bear

ROCK — Gordon Taft is especially fond of his power saw these days because it saved him from the big bad bear.

When he sat down for a smoke while working in the woods at Osier, he heard a noise behind him. Looking back, he saw a big bear too close for comfort. The bear just stood on his hind feet and showed no inclination to move.

Taft said it was a good thing his power saw was close by. He grabbed for the saw, hoping the bear would not take a grab for him. After the saw started, the bear listened with his head to one side and then decided to return to the woods.

Horwood Tells Okinawa Story

Eager for education yet lacking leadership and initiative, the people of Okinawa need the help of the United States to improve their condition, and this nation needs their friendship and cooperation in return.

This briefly was the message presented to the Escanaba Rotary Club yesterday noon by Russell E. Horwood, Chatham, extension supervisor in the Upper Peninsula for Michigan State College, who spent two years in Okinawa with an educational mission to establish school of higher learning.

The Michigan State College mission to the Ryukus, of which Okinawa is one of the islands in the chain south of Japan, started its university in 1950 with 500 students. Now there are 1,200 students, Horwood reported.

Common Sense Basis

"The greatest need is for a service university which through research and extension will carry education to the people, to help the people improve themselves," Horwood said.

Such an educational institution must be "on a common sense basis and suited to the economy of the people, for they must support it and carry on from where we leave off," he added.

The society, the customs and even the government of Okinawa is firmly rooted in tradition and it is difficult to get the people to look for new ideas. The land is rough and rocky, only 16 per cent of the land is suited to agriculture, and 70 per cent of the people are engaged in farming small tracts averaging one acre in size.

Need Understanding

There is poverty, little food, destructive typhoons, only a meager development of electric power; yet the people are polite, kindly, clean. To overcome inertia, to develop leadership, the Americans must bring with them a better understanding of the people of Okinawa. Only in this way can the task be accomplished, Horwood asserted.

"We must learn to work, to give and take with the people of Okinawa and the peoples of other nations. We must learn from them if we are to help them. All too often they neither understand what we say or what we are trying to do to help them."

"The closer we come to understanding and good will in the world, the closer we come to peace," Horwood concluded.

The speaker was introduced by J. L. Heirman of the Rotary Club's program committee.

U. P. Bureau To Hear White Pine Project Report

A factual review of the White Pine mining development in Ontonagon county will be presented by Harold B. Ewoldt, vice-president of the White Pine Copper Company, as a highlight of the 43rd annual meeting of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau to be held Oct. 21-22 at Ironwood.

Letters announcing the program have been sent by Howard H. Billings, of Iron River, Bureau president, to all directors and members of the organization and other civic leaders in the Peninsula.

Registration will be at the St. James hotel, and in addition there will be accommodations at nearby motels and cottages, so that even the late-comers will find rooms.

The program will be opened with a luncheon at 12:15, noon, at the St. James hotel, when Robert Sayles, first vice-president of the Bureau will preside.

Other meetings will continue through the closing dinner at 6:30 p. m. Thursday, Oct. 22, in the Community Building, when there will be two principal addresses and scenic motion pictures of the Upper Peninsula.

Intoxicated Driver Pays Fine Of $50

Jerry G. Marsieck, 54, of 404 S. 15th St., today pleaded guilty in Justice Caroline A. Nystrom's court to a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicants and paid a fine of $50 and costs.

Marsieck also pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $2 for driving with an expired operator's license. Under state statute his driver's license is automatically suspended on a conviction for intoxicated driving.

Escanaba police arrested Marsieck at 8:10 p. m. yesterday in the 1800 block, Ludington, after Marsieck's car struck a parked automobile owned by Joseph Roshak of Perronville. No one was injured.

Adult Classes Begin Oct. 22

Enrollment for adult education evening classes in Escanaba will be held from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. Thursday, Oct. 22, in the Junior High School gym, it was announced today by Vernon Ihlenfeldt, director. All of the teachers of adult classes will be present so students may meet them at that time.

Twenty classes will be offered this year and additional classes will be organized if there is sufficient interest. A minimum of 10 students is required to organize a class.

Many of the classes this year will be the same as last year and there are also several new courses, the director said.

"There are many reasons why an adult would wish to enroll in one of the classes," Ihlenfeldt pointed out. "There is opportunity through many of the courses for job improvement, for better home life, for worthy use of leisure time by learning a hobby—whether it be a foreign language, golf, ceramics or bridge."

"And there is always the opportunity to better understand your community by meeting other people, enjoying their companionship and sharing their ideas."

Night classes will be held any time, anywhere and for any subject in which there is sufficient interest and an enrollment of at least 10 students, Ihlenfeldt noted. Persons interested in joining a class or teaching are asked to call 2123.

Persons who wish to teach a class must have a thorough knowledge of the subject and the ability to share this knowledge with others, the director said.

Local organizations or firms interested in organizing a class for their members or employees are encouraged to contact Ihlenfeldt.

Those who desire a folder describing the courses offered this year are asked to call 2123 and a folder will be delivered.

FBI Has Done Marvelous Job In Tracking Down Kidnap Murderers

LAW enforcement officers and particularly the Federal Bureau of Investigation have done a marvelous job of police work in wrapping up the Bobby Greenleaf kidnap murder case.

Yesterday the FBI announced that ex-convict Carl Austin Hall and his girl friend, Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, confessed that they plotted the boy's death even before the kidnaping took place. It was also announced that Hall admitted he killed the six-year-old boy and that it was determined that the boy had been taken across the Missouri-Kansas line by his abductors. As a result the federal Lindbergh law applies, which provides for a possible death sentence when the victim is harmed, as in this case.

In his confession, Hall absolved a third suspect, Tom Marsh, from complicity in the case. This, incidentally, confirmed a suspicion that the FBI had previously held, that Hall's original implication of Marsh was a lie.

The full story of the Greenleaf kidnap murder is a revolting tale of callousness. It now has been learned that the murder had been carefully plotted, fully premeditated. The killers, in fact, had even dug the boy's grave before the youth was kidnaped and had purchased lime to cover his body when he was buried.

It is a sordid story that leaves no room for anything but public hatred against the perpetrators of this heinous offense.

By their promptness and skill in tracking down the kidnap killers and in exacting from the killers a full confession of their crime, the law enforcement officers have proved again that kidnaping does not pay and that kidnap killing is a crime that draws quick retribution. It should prove a powerful deterrent to criminals who may otherwise see in kidnaping a lush source of easy money.

British Laborites Caught In Middle

THE day hardly passes without some prominent Briton, usually a member of the Labor Party, urging the early admission of Red China to the United Nations. This is an old story now. The only reason for bringing it up is that a situation has developed that puts the argument in a peculiar light.

The principal contention of the British and some others is that Red China merits this recognition because the Communist regime is in fact the master of all mainland China. In other words, the argument runs, it is simple realism to deal with the authority now in successful control of 450 million Chinese.

In theory, at least, this reasoning has force. But the American position is that we are not dealing with mere theory, but actuality. And the actuality is that Red China for more than two years fought an aggressive war against the UN in Korea and is still giving major assistance to Red rebels in the Indo-China war.

We do not believe the Communist Chinese deserve consideration for UN membership so long as they are pursuing aggressive designs.

Many in the pro-recognition group profess to see in our stand a perverse sort of stubbornness. They picture their own position as the very essence of compelling logic.

But now see what has happened. America has concluded an agreement with Spain for the use of air and naval bases. And the British Laborites, principally deplore the arrangement of the ground that Spain's dictator, Generalissimo Franco, heads a distasteful Fascist regime that we should do nothing to encourage.

The United States has no love for Franco, that is plain. But we realize that he, more perhaps than Mao in Red China, has control of his country. Realistically, by the very tests the Laborites would have us apply to Mao, we must accept the Franco government.

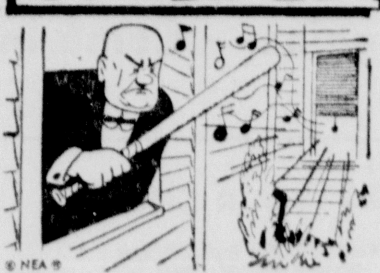

Here it should be noted, however, that we are not inviting Spain into the UN or even into NATO. We are making a hard-headed deal for military bases we consider vital to our own and the west's security.

Questions and Answers

Q—I've noticed that Chairman Harold H. Velde (R-Ill.), of the House Un-American Activities Committee, is a former FBI agent. Are there any other Members who are former agents?

A—According to the Society of Former Agents of the FBI, there are four others: Reps. Omar Burleson (D-Tex.), Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn.), Ed Edmondson (D-Okl.) and Allan Oakley Hunter (R-Calif.). No present member of the Senate has had FBI experience, but two governors have. They are Govs. Frank Clement (D-Tenn.) and Edwin Mechem (R-N. M.).

UNCLE EF

Mrs. True says she'll be glad when it's cold enough for everyone to close their windows so she won't have to hold Everette back from going on a neighborhood radio-and-television-smashing expedition because their blaring prevents him from listening to some good music records.

Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Though the Air Force is so hard up for funds that it has been forced to cancel 955 planes and 6,000 jet engines, it is spending money like water on free transportation and entertainment for the same senators and congressmen who helped slash their budget.

More than two dozen congressional parties are now away on overseas junket—from the sunny skies of South America to the gay night life of Paris and Rome. Wherever they go, the Air Force wines and dines them, partly in the hope they won't cut the budget any more.

For example, Air Force headquarters at Wiesbaden, Germany, sent the following confidential dispatch to Wheelus Air Force base at Tripoli, Libya:

"Case subcommittee on real estate and military construction will visit your base on 26 September," the message read. "Length of stay in Wheelus probably one day. Group is composed of Chairman Francis Case, (SD), Senators James H. Huff, (Pa.), John C. Stennis, (Miss), Ralph E. Flanders, (Vt.), John S. Cooper, (Ky.), Mr. Wm. H. Darden, committee counsel, Mr. Frank R. Creedon (Defense Department), Col. E. V. Schuyler (Air Force), and Lt. Col. E. N. Hathaway, escort officer.

"Purpose of this visit is to inspect construction progress of Air Force installations. Maj. Gen. Colby Myers will represent this headquarters and will accompany the group to your area. In addition, wives of Senators Case, Stennis, Huff, Flanders and Mr. Darden, and daughters of Senators Case and Stennis will accompany party. Request accommodations be arranged for all members of this group for night of 26 September. Request also entertainment, escort on shopping and sightseeing arrangements for ladies of party be planned."

After time out for entertainment and sightseeing around Tripoli, it is doubtful that this senatorial party will get much inspecting done during their overnight stay at Wheelus Air Force base. Their formidable escorts—one general, two colonels and a Defense Department official—should be able to provide good guide service.

Note—Most overseas tours are strictly vacations at the taxpayers' expense, but some are legitimate. For example, Senator Ellender of Louisiana has just returned from a hard-working, two-month, round-the-world mission for the senate appropriations committee. He went to the out-of-the-way places, rather than vacation spots, collected 21 books of painstaking notes on what he found.

UNFAIR TAX FRAUD

It wasn't supposed to leak out, but T. Coleman Andrews, the nation's tax chief, admitted behind closed doors recently that "an awful lot" of innocent people have been slapped with tax-fraud penalties.

This shocking admission was drawn from him by Congressman John Dingell, Michigan Democrat, at a secret meeting of the joint congressional committee on taxation. "Why do you slap on so many fraud cases that never hold water? Is it just to put a ring in the taxpayer's nose and hold him close?" demanded Dingell.

"I am not at all happy about the situation," acknowledged Andrews. He explained that the practice had been to charge civil fraud in cases where evidence for a criminal indictment was lacking.

"I am worried about these (civil fraud) cases," he confessed in the closed-door session. "I am afraid, very frankly, that there have been an awful lot of citizens in this country who have been slapped with a fraud penalty without being guilty of any fraud."

"I know of one case," Dingell pointed out, "where the intervention of a senator, a Republican senator, helped settle a matter on a basis of one-eleventh with $110,000 involved. And I know that the government got more than it was entitled to in the $10,000 settlement."

Dingell also charged that tax agents had misused the net-worth technique in trying to trap tax delinquents. The mistake had been made of adding up duplicate bank figures, he claimed, so it would appear a taxpayer had deposited twice as much money as he had actually put in the bank.

"You just count figures and never mind using your brains," snorted the grizzled old Michigan Democrat.

"The net-worth theory was adopted without, in my opinion, a proper instruction to those who have to apply it," admitted Andrews. "We propose to send out a manual to include in our training, which is an up-to-date discourse on how to use the net-worth theory."

Chairman Dan Reed of New York then pulled out a letter, which he claimed had been sent to him by a field agent. The letter complained that all tax examiners had been taken off their cases and assigned to helping taxpayers make out their returns during the tax-filing period.

"It looks like close to one-half a year's revenue through field examination will be lost," Reed quoted the letter. "It may be close to $1,000,000,000 in my estimation, which is not good reading in view of the President's desire to balance the budget."

White House Spruced Up, Ready For Plush State Dinners Again

By PATTI SIMMONS

NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The Eisenhowers are swinging into the traditional state entertaining to be held at the Executive Mansion since the 1946-47 season with one strike against Mamie Eisenhower's role as hostess.

Maitre d'Hotel Alonzo Fields, one of the most indispensable men at the White House, will be missing. Fields, who learned his butler's secrets from the bluebloods of Boston, has returned there because of family reasons.

In past administrations it was the impeccable Fields who conjured up the menus for the big state dinners. When royalty or heads of state were feted it was Fields who stepped up the pace in the White House kitchen. For 21 years he served at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue.

Old-timers say it won't seem the same without the six-foot-three impressive-looking major-domo. Certainly, the first person to agree would be Charles Ficklin. Formerly first butler under Fields, Ficklin is now the White House's new maitre.

Custom at the Executive Mansion calls for 10 state functions: five white-tie receptions and five formal dinners, usually between November and spring.

The dinner line-up includes one each for the Vice President the Chief Justice, the Speaker of the House, the cabinet and the heads of foreign missions. This last fete will be split into two separate parties. Ambassadors and their wives have finally outgrown the dinner table at the White House which seats 100.

On the reception calendar the Congressional, Diplomatic, Judicial, Departmental and Armed Forces sets each has its own night to cue up, 1000 to 1500 strong, and wait to shake hands with the President.

Engraved card-holders all parade in the east side-entrance. Only a few big shots including the cabinet, the Chief Justice and the Speaker walk in the front door.

Cakes and punch are served in the state dining room. The show of the evening, however, is the clothes. The glamour, glitter and gold braid at the diplomatic reception rivals an opera opening.

In 1947-48 all state dinners were cancelled. The White House announced that it was because "of the urgent necessity for the conservation of food in order to help relieve hunger around the world."

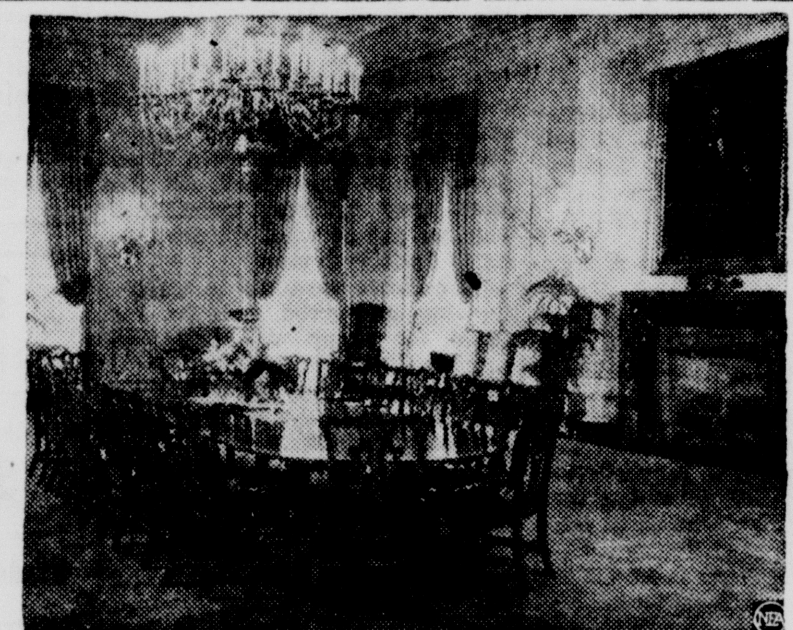

Then the Executive Mansion was closed for repairs from November, 1948, to April, 1952. With the arrival of spring it was too late to begin the state functions so Mrs. Truman substituted five informal afternoon receptions.

Last year, by the time the Eisenhowers got settled in the White House, Lent had begun and again state functions were omitted.

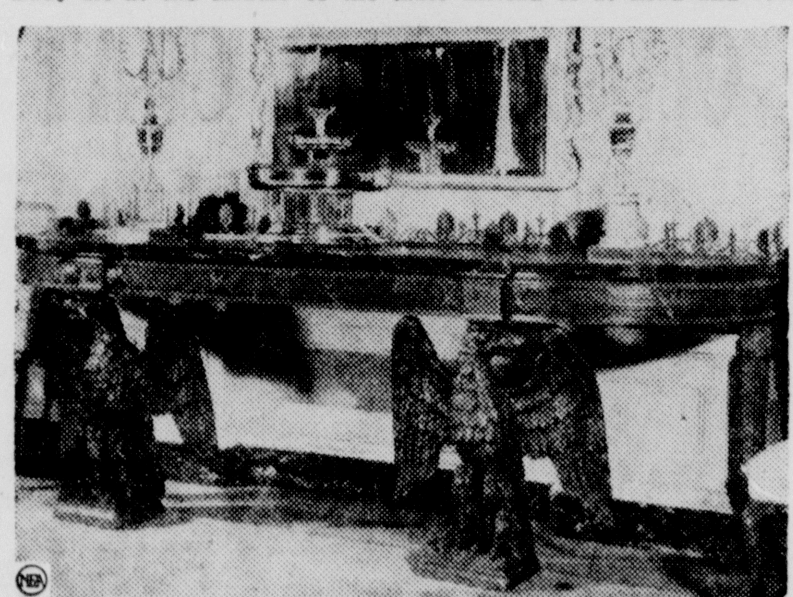

Another new look about this year's state season is the grand staircase which will be showing off a face-lifting job done by the repairmen.

The last time a Chief Executive, his cabinet and their wives assembled in the President's study and then paraded down the stately steps to begin a full dress reception, they ended up in the hall right outside the Green Room. Now they'll step into the crystal-chandelied entrance right beside the front door.

Extras in the entertainment department always include a dinner for a visiting head of state.

RENOVATED STATE DINING ROOM: The President and First Lady sit at the middle of the table instead of at head and foot.

WHITE HOUSE STATE BUFFET: Cakes and punch on the side-board, glamour, glitter and gold braid on the diplomatic guests.

Recently the dinner bell rang for the President of Panama and his wife, and will sound again in October for the King and Queen of Greece and in January for the President of Turkey.

One thing the Eisenhowers have to get used to at these parties is sitting at the middle of the dining room table instead of at the head and foot. It's been said the custom goes back to an old theory that such a seating arrangement would make it more difficult to assassinate one's host. The way the White House explains it is that it makes conversation easier.

Most of the time, of course, the President and First Lady have a cozy dinner served for two—sometimes, off individual trays in the upstairs sitting room.

After dinner they watch TV or see a movie in the private basement theater. Around about 9:30 p. m. the President will push off for a good night's sleep. If Mamie decides to stay up and read a while it's likely to be an historical novel.

Good Evening...

By CLINT DUNATHAN

THE WORKING CLASS—Women in Okinawa, one of the islands of the Japanese Ryukus, are second rate citizens according to the customs of the land. They are born to work and their lifetime is one of drudgery.

So said Russell E. Horwood, Chatham, Michigan State College extension district supervisor for the Upper Peninsula, in a talk to the Escanaba Rotary Club. He spent two years in Okinawa with an educational mission sent there by the College.

"I saw one woman carry away a burden that required two men to lift to her shoulders," Horwood reported. "Another time I saw a woman carrying a bushel basket of cabbages on her head, a baby on her back, and a package in each hand."

The American woman is well served by mechanical gadgets in her home and kitchen. Supplies are either delivered to her home or they are transported in the family auto.

And not only that, but she may vote, has specific rights under law, enters into the councils of government, and is often elected or appointed to positions of influence in the land.

ENTERTAINER—Do you remember Peterson's Opera House in Escanaba?

If you do, you will no doubt recall the name of Felix LaFournier, who played here in stock and vaudeville in an earlier day and only recently retired from the footlights to a home in Racine.

His brother, Ernest LaFreniere (the brothers spell the family name differently) resides at 226 N. 18th St. in Escanaba, and the other day showed me a 1909 Escanaba Morning Press to prove that Felix was once a big name here in the world of entertainment.

The newspaper advertisement showed Felix and others in the St. Joseph's Minstrels company playing at Peterson's Opera House on Feb. 16, 1909. Besides being in the cast, Felix directed the minstrels.

BAND BOOSTERS—Escanaba public schools have a large number of boys and girls who play in bands—grade school, Junior High and Senior High School bands.

The public seldom has an opportunity to see or hear any of the bands except the Senior High School aggregation, which often appears in parades, at football games, and other events.

But behind the Senior High band are long years of musical training, often starting in the grade schools with a toy drum or a little rhythm instrument called a tonette.

At 7:30 p. m. Wednesday the three Junior High School bands will present a free concert to the public in Wm. Oliver auditorium.

After the concert the first meeting of the Band Boosters this school year will be held—which indicates that such success in the school music program does have the active interest and support of the parents. Music in the schools is no longer considered a frill. The children like it and the parents are ready and willing to devote time and effort to promote it.

WATER POLLUTION—Michigan's "hot-test" and most noisome water pollution story of this date centers along the Kalamazoo River in Lower Michigan.

L. F. Baldwin of Eaton Rapids, speaking to the directors of the Michigan United Conservation Clubs in meeting here over the weekend, reported on efforts being made to end pollution that has made headlines and Life magazine.

Life magazine used a picture of a "river of dead fish" caused by industrial waste pollution. The fish are carp, it is true, but the more valuable pan fish had given up the ghost long ago, Baldwin reported.

"The fumes from the river discolors the paint on homes, turns silverware black, and the stench is terrific," Baldwin said.

Conservation clubs, interested primarily in halting pollution for the benefit of fish and game, nevertheless do an inestimable amount of general public good by pressuring for enactment laws and enforcement of laws that will restore Michigan's reputation of a "water wonderland."

OUT OF THE GROUND—The Escanaba public works department is busy these days with the improvement of a section of the Danforth Road within the city limits.

In the improvement it was necessary to ditch deeply on both sides of the road through a swamp. This resulted in digging up some swamp muck that looked rich and dark—but from the standpoint of fertility was practically worthless.

Not knowing how valueless this muck soil is, many people came and asked for and received permission to take as much of it as they wished for their gardens. Unlike marl, which is high in lime content, the bog dirt is acid.

Removal of the muck, however, will help speed the road project. This will be welcomed by folks of the Danforth area and of the city who drive to and from Danforth.

The Doctor Says...

Diverticulosis Is a Condition Which Is Present at Birth

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

J. H. asks whether there is any such disease as diverticulosis, whether it is serious, and for a discussion of treatment, if any.

Starting at the beginning, a diverticulum is a pouch or pocket leading off from a large cavity or tube. In the passageway leading from the mouth of the rectum such pouches are fairly common. Diverticula are believed to be weak spots in the wall of the tube present at birth.

Diverticula are most common in the colon or lower part of the bowel. After the age of 40, it has been claimed that diverticula are present in about one person in every 20.

Usually, these pockets do not produce symptoms and the condition is called diverticulosis. Occasionally, they can become inflamed and then the label, diverticulitis is applied.

Ordinary diverticula usually do not produce symptoms. In diverticulitis the symptoms of inflammation vary a good deal. There may be a single slight attack of acute abdominal pain or several attacks. Occasionally the inflammation may be so severe as to cause a perforation or hole in the pocket with infection spreading to the abdominal cavity and causing peritonitis.

The area involved may be sensitive to pressure, though of course this can occur from a great many other conditions.

Because the symptoms are so similar to many other conditions of the intestines or abdominal contents, and are frequently complicated by other disorders, the diagnosis is often difficult.

EXAMINATION NECESSARY

Examination of the lower part of the bowel by the use of an instrument called a proctoscope is necessary. X-ray studies are also needed.

When severe diverticulitis bursts through the wall of the bowel or obstructs intestinal action, an immediate operation may be necessary. Of those which do produce trouble, most can be treated by diet and other simple measures. Just why some people have diverticula and not others is not known, and there is no way of preventing them.

Employers Report On High School Graduates

MINNEAPOLIS—Employers rate present-day high school graduates sharply higher in alertness, learning ability, self-confidence and maturity, compared with grads ten or twenty years ago. These are the chief strong points of youthful job-holders brought out in a survey of employment agencies in 44 cities, by the family economics bureau of Northwestern National Life Insurance company.

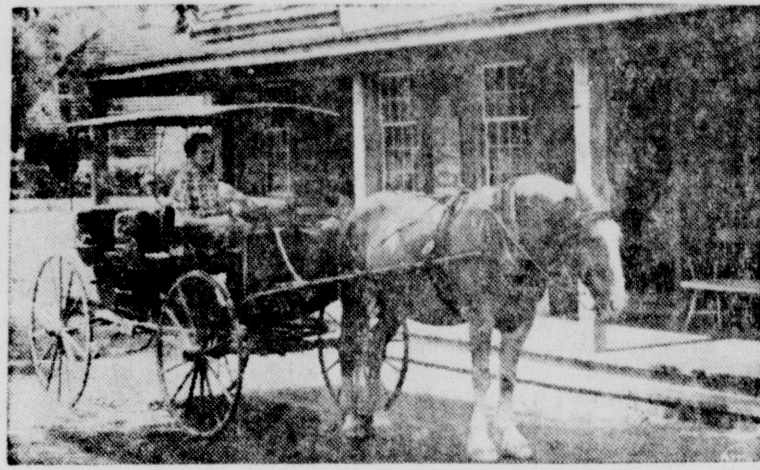

But—these greater potentialities are more poorly developed and applied today, employers tell the placement agencies. There are shining exceptions, of course, but an astonishing proportion of the current grads can't spell, can't punctuate, can't do percentages or other simple arithmetic, the agencies report. Too many are unreliable; too many have no interest in doing a good day's work, and don't. Too many have inflated ideas of their worth in terms of starting salaries. These are the chief criticisms cited in replies to the survey, which asked employment agency executives to list the strong points and the weak points of the typical present-day high school graduate on the job, as brought out by the experience of employer-clients.

Personality traits dominated the inventory of strong points listed for modern high schoolers: Poise, assurance, aggressiveness, adaptability, ease in meeting strangers, ability to get along with others, mature knowledge of the world, were the most frequently cited. "Wrong attitude" headed the biggest group of faults listed. Of these, inflated ideas of own value and desire to start at an experienced worker's salary, were the number one complaint; instability and irresponsibility were second, including tardiness, loafing, staying away from work without excuse, and quitting without notice. Third in frequency of mention was indifference—"no interest in anything but how much can be gotten for how little work."

Ignorance of fundamentals such as spelling, punctuation, arithmetic and grammar were a close second in number of complaints. "Too much progressive education; not enough training in three R's" was a typical comment. "Too many elective courses; teen-agers naturally follow line of least resistance and take 'cinch' studies, avoiding math and other 'solid' courses as much as possible," was another typical remark. Some commented on the promotion system used in certain public schools. "They're graduating people now who couldn't have gotten past the freshman year before the war," said one eastern employment agency man. "Schools crowded; classes too large," was another frequent comment.

The very abundance of employment was given the major blame by some placement executives, both for poor scholastic preparation and wrong attitudes. "Youngsters feel they don't have to apply themselves; they can get a job anyway. And if they don't like the first job, they feel they can easily get another," sums up this school of thought.

There was considerable disagreement in the appraisals of graduates of high school commercial courses. Some placement officials feel that high schools in their territory are giving excellent training in stenography and other office courses. Others say that graduates of city high school commercial courses are likely to be better trained than those from small town high school business classes, "but boys and girls from the smaller towns have better spirit, more desire to do a good job, and are more industrious."

Expert Wins Bet With Long Cast In Thames

LONDON (AP)—Col. Edmond Drury proved Sunday it is possible to fish in the Thames River from the roof of the Savoy Hotel, rendezvous of the theatrical folk in the British capital.

Drury cast a 2-ounce lead sinker 6 feet into the Thames with a 10½-foot salmon rod.

It settled a bet—rumored to be 1,000 pounds, or $2,800—made by two revelers recently at a Savoy party.

The Savoy roof is 150 feet high and the hotel stands 251 feet from the bank of the Thames.

Another Bear Story

SQUAW CREEK CANYON, Calif. (AP)—Hunter W. S. Lloyd swears it happened.

A woman walked up to him Monday in the woods, he said, and asked:

"My husband's trying to hunt bear, but there aren't any around here, are there?"

Suddenly a piece of redwood bark fell to the ground. Lloyd looked up and fired. A 250-pound black bear tumbled out of the tree and dropped at the woman's feet.

Campaign Is Planned For Community Chest

Budgets for five of six health and welfare agencies participating in the Delta County Community Chest were approved and plans for the campaign to be held this month were discussed at a meeting of the Chest executive committee in the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce office yesterday.

Budgets approved, all of which are approximately the same as last year, were the Boy Scouts, $8,100; Girl Scouts, $3,125; Salvation Army, $5,000; Michigan Children's Aid, $750, and Cod Liver Oil Fund, $390.

It was explained that the budget of the Campfire Girls organization, the sixth member of the Community Chest, is not yet completed but will be within the next few days.

Start About Oct. 20
No further information has been received concerning the possibility of organization of a Family Welfare Society in Delta County.

A. W. Moberg, Chest secretary-treasurer, reported.

The Chest last year raised $20,210 against a quota of $20,000 to be used by the six agencies for health, welfare and recreation work throughout Delta County in 1953. Funds raised this year will be used to finance work throughout 1954.

"Pending approval of all budgets and determination of the amounts needed for the respective programs in 1954, we cannot as yet announce our quota for this year," A. B. Ellingsen, of Gladstone, Chest president, said.

"In all probability, however, it will approximate that of last year, and we expect to start the campaign about Oct. 20 and complete it by the first week in November."

Peters Vice President

Walter Peters, of Masonville, yesterday was elected vice president, and Sam Ham, of Escanaba, who has served as president of the Chest Council for four years, was appointed an ex-officio member of the executive committee.

Ham, Ellingsen, James G. Ward Jr., and Dr. A. A. Gossan were named to a committee to order supplies and make preparations for the current campaign.

In attendance at yesterday's session were Wallace Cameron, James T. Jones, Oscar Ohman, LeRoy Hamilton and Ellingsen, all of Gladstone; Andrew Houston, Moberg, Ham, Ward and Gossan, all of Escanaba; Peters, Masonville, and Victor Borga, of Garden.

Only absent member of the executive committee was Nicholas Chapekis, of Escanaba, who was out of the city.

Workers from other AFL craft unions began returning to the area, but construction was not immediately resumed.

The return to the job site by the first of some 600 workers affected was described by a union spokesman as orderly. A few members of the ironworkers local were at the scene but made no attempt to halt the returning employees, the spokesman said.

The restraining order was issued by Federal Judge Fred L. Wham in East St. Louis Monday.

It followed a complaint to the National Labor Relations Board by the Bechtel Corp., the contractor, that the local union and its business agent, W. B. Sanders, were engaged in illegal picketing.

The huge Joppa power plant on the banks of the Ohio River here is one of two under construction to supply power to the Atomic Energy Commission's new plant near Paducah, Ky.

The strike stemmed from the local's refusal to approve the hiring of six workers specified by name by the contractor. The ironworkers walked off the job despite a no-strike pledge made to Bechtel by AFL union international representatives shortly after Bechtel took over the job from another contractor.

Previously the job had been delayed by some 40 work stoppages, many of them arising from jurisdictional disputes between AFL unions.

Australia lies directly in the path of the two main migrations of whales on their seasonal trek to warmer waters says the National Geographic Society.

Kremlin Charges Trieste Decision Violates Treaty

sailed from the city carrying 250 wives and children. The soldiers are expected to leave next month.

On contract to the angry demonstrations in Yugoslavia, Trieste itself continued calm.

One fracas, however, was reported from the city of Gorizia, on the Italian-Yugoslav border north of Trieste. Italian frontier guards there said a crowd of Yugoslav youths stoned them Monday. No injuries were reported.

The predominantly Italian population of Zone A was obviously worried, however, over Tito's threat Sunday to send his own troops into the zone if Italian troops replaced the 7,000 British and American soldiers. Observers on all sides agreed such a move could touch off World War III.

Situation Serious

The American intention to stick by the Allied decision was made plain Monday in Washington by a State Department spokesman shortly before Yugoslav foreign secretary, Koca Popovic, conferred for 50 minutes with U. S. Secretary of State Dulles.

Popovic told reporters he would return for another talk with Dulles today.

The Yugoslav foreign secretary described his talk with Dulles as fruitful and declared: "The situation is really grave but I am hoping with our common efforts we can improve the situation."

There was no immediate official U. S. reaction to the Soviet note. Although the Russians offered no new proposals, the note emphasized that under the Italian Peace Treaty the territory was to be "neutral and demilitarized."

It charged that the United States and Britain violated their obligation by "having transformed Trieste into an illegal Anglo-American military and naval base which played an important role in the military plans of the aggressive North Atlantic bloc."

School Board Meets Tonight

The Escanaba Board of Education will meet tonight to discuss plans for the construction of the new elementary school and to discuss the school district's participation in the meeting of the state tax commission here Friday.

The sale of the Escanaba Daily Press, previously scheduled for consideration tonight, has been postponed because of the absence from the city of James E. Frost, executor of the John P. Norton estate.

On a clear night about 6,000 stars are visible to the unaided eye.

Wall Street

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market worked irregularly lower today in moderate trading.

Price changes covered a range of around a point either way with minus signs predominating.

Business was brisk in the first hour and then slackened a bit. A pace of a million shares or better for the day was maintained. Friday's total came to 900,000 shares.

Railroads were mostly lower as were the building materials.

Motors were unchanged to lower in early trading and then moved ahead. The rest of the market was steady to mixed with a lower tendency apparent in significant areas.

Losing stocks included New York Central, Standard Oil (NJ), Bethlehem Steel and United Aircraft. Higher were General Motors, Studebaker, Dow Chemical and Montgomery Ward.

Corporate bonds were steady, and U. S. government securities in the over the counter market also were steady.

World Wonders If Marshal Tito Is Only Bluffing

este so long, claimed it for Yugoslavia.

Yugoslavia was Communist and at that time, the end of World War II, a Russian satellite. But the Western Powers wanted to keep Italy friendly to them and in their camp.

A Trieste compromise was worked out in the Italian Peace Treaty of 1947: Yugoslav troops would occupy part of Trieste, called Zone B; the British and American allies would occupy the rest of the territory, called Zone A, including the city.

This was to be a temporary arrangement until the United Nations picked a neutral governor for Trieste, which would then become a free territory under the U. N.

But Russia and the Western nations could never agree on a governor.

The result: American and British troops continued to occupy Zone A; Yugoslavs held Zone B. This situation dragged along until 1948. By then relations with Russia had become an open, although cold, war.

Yugoslavia at that time was still under Russia's wing. But the Italian elections were coming up. There was danger the Italian Communists might win and take over.

To help defeat them by strengthening the hand of the Italian anti-Communists, this country and Britain declared all Trieste should be given to Italy, since there had been no agreement on a governor for a free Trieste.

It didn't matter to the West that this proposal infuriated Tito, still a Russian satellite. But when Tito broke with Stalin it was to the interest of the West to specify him.

To strengthen Italy in dealing with Tito, the two allies let Italy have a hand in running Zone A. To break the deadlock over Trieste, the United States and Britain said they would withdraw their troops from Zone A shortly and let Italy take over.

That meant Italian troops in Zone A would face Yugoslav troops in Zone B. Then Tito began to threaten. Is he bluffing?

Maybe.

Eggplant Served In 'Dreams'

TEXAS EGGPLANT DREAM—This eggplant dish is extra delicious on hot days when fresh vegetables come into their own.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Here's a wonderful new fresh vegetable luncheon dish. Mrs. Willis Davis of San Antonio, Tex., invented it. She's a tournament bridge player, Texas U. graduate, and a believer in the high health value and low cost of fresh vegetables in their peak season.

On extra hot days, and it gets hot in Texas, this is what she serves for luncheon: Fresh eggplant "dreams," tossed green salad, lemon French dressing, rye bread, butter or margarine, fresh fruit bowl, iced tea, milk.

Eggplant "Dreams"

Six slices fresh eggplant, 3/4 inch thick, 1/2 pound American cheese, flour, 6 slices bacon, 3 tablespoons butter (or margarine), 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper, 4 tomatoes, sliced 1/2 inch thick.

Cover eggplant with flour. Melt butter or margarine, in large skillet. Sauté eggplant slowly until brown. Drain on paper towels. Place on baking sheet. Arrange 2 or 3 slices of tomatoes on top, then the cheese. Top with bacon. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Place under broiler until bacon is crisp, about 5-7 minutes. Serve at once. Serves 6.

If very small eggplant is used, increase number of slices per serving. Contains approximately 258 calories per serving.

Tomatoes Stuffed With Okra

Six large tomatoes, 1/4 cup cooked fresh corn, cut from cob, 12 fresh okra pods, cooked and diced, 1/4 cup bread crumbs, 1 tablespoon chopped green pepper, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/8 teaspoon ground black pepper, 1

Corduroy Is Easy To Hand Wash

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

Printed corduroy is among the season's fashion favorites and its washing requirements are so simple that it probably will be among your favorites for many seasons.

Gentle washing in soapy water, careful drying and brushing are the important steps. First be sure that linings and trimmings are washable, too.

Here are few don'ts to remember:

Don't soak or rub the fabric because this will mat the pile.

Don't wring after rinsing.

Don't dry over a line or rod because either will leave a ridge. Use regular clothes hangers.

When you hang the corduroys to dry straighten seams and close zippers. Then pull the fabric gently in the direction of the wales.

The garment should be brushed when it is almost dry. Brush in the direction of the pile, following the lines of the wales, to restore the corduroy's fluffy texture.

If the garment dries before you get to it with the brush, steam it on the right or wrong side with a steam iron held just above the material. Or spread a damp pressing cloth over the garment and hold a hot iron about one-quarter inch above the surface.

the delegates and guests.

Dr. Zizzamia, Speaker

A panel discussion on committee programs will be conducted by the Rev. Joseph J. Dunleavy, spiritual moderator of the organization. Participating will be Mrs. Corbin Eddy of Houghton, Mrs. Richard Brewer of Iron River, Mrs. J. H. Niver, Escanaba, Miss Irma Perkins, Sault Ste. Marie, and Mrs. Walter McClintock of Treenary.

The convention address will be given by Dr. Olba Zizzamia of New York City, an official observer at United Nations. Her topic will be "The Christian Family of Nations." Other speakers will be Mrs. Russell Greenleaf of Houghton and Mrs. David Ripley of Sault Ste. Marie who will give annual reports, and Mrs. R. C. Mahon of Iron River, national director for the Province of Detroit.

Election of officers will take place at the convention. Mrs. Stack Smith of Escanaba is chairman of the nominating committee which is composed of a member from each of the Deaneries. Miss Lenora Ryan of Escanaba is a member of the auditing committee.

Board Meets Saturday

The Diocesan Board will hold a dinner meeting Saturday night at which the Deanery presidents will give their annual reports. Mrs. John Anthony is president of the Escanaba Deanery.

Following the general session Sunday a luncheon will be served by Christopher Columbus Guild. The afternoon program at 2 will consist of a Bishop Baraga program and pageant in Richlie Auditorium. The convention will close with a Pontifical High Mass which will be celebrated by Bishop Noa at Pullar Stadium.

Here's That Dior Hemline Heard Round The World

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Fashion Editor

All over the world right now women of all countries are contemplating their skirt lengths, and trying to decide that trying question:

"To shorten or not to shorten?" Cause of all this widespread rumpus is a small, mild Frenchman named Christian Dior, who threw the world of fashion into a similar tizzy a few years ago when he introduced the "New Look," with longer, fuller skirts, after the skimpy styles of World War II.

When he displayed skirts two-to-three inches shorter than current styles in his fall fashion showing early in August, buyers and press were thrown into a state of high excitement. The words "knee-length skirts" went clicking over the press wires, setting off a chain reaction which resulted in a state of polite war between rival designers, particularly the British, with Dior. In America, polls were taken and women vowed they would never go back to that "unbecoming skirt length."

U. S. buyers in Paris tempered enthusiasm with caution, bought a few of the new short models, filled in with less startling designs. Some of the high-style shops in New York and other population centers stocked the short-skirt models heavily. Others ordered the Dior frocks with longer skirts.

But U. S. experts predict that by spring American women will be following the leader and turning up their hemlines once more.

Supervisors Ask Report On Dams

An engineer's preliminary sketch of a dam for controlling water on the Indian River, to protect property on Indian Lake, was asked by the Schoolcraft County Board of Supervisors Monday afternoon.

The supervisors also requested that county road engineers be consulted to determine if the present rock dam on Bull Dog River is at the level set in a court decree several years ago, and to determine if water in McDonald Lake coincides with the legal level established for it.

The action, and considerable discussion on the two lakes, followed presentation of petitions to the board, from property owners in the areas, by Wells Bowers, chairman of the county board. One petitioner objected to the lake levels being too high and others protested low levels.

Authorized Tax Levies

Bowers explained that the Michigan Conservation department had advised that if dams were requested on the rivers, the county would have to build them and reimburse itself for the costs through establishment of special assessment district.

Supervisors asked of property owners on the lakes and rivers affected were the only ones who could be taxed for the dams, or if other units of government, private agencies or persons benefitting could also be assessed. An opinion from the attorney general on the statute governing the assessments was interpreted to indicate that those benefitting could be assessed, whether or not they owned property adjacent to the lake.

Boys Coal

The County board Monday afternoon also adopted a resolution spreading 1953 taxes on the rolls to raise the $110,699.55 needed to meet the 1954 budget. The taxes will be based on a total county valuation of $11,069,950, and 10 mills will be levied for the county. Millage for the townships and school districts' operating expenses and debt service also was included in the resolution.

Also passed yesterday was a resolution designating the First National Bank and the State Savings bank as depositories for revenue collected by the county treasurer, and a reassessment resolution to correct an imperfection in the 1952 tax levy.

Purchases authorized by the board Monday afternoon were 100 tons of stoker coal from Manistique Coal and Lumber company at $14.25 per ton, 50 tons of lump coal from Girvin Coal and Dock Company at $14.65 per ton, and 10 concrete markers, at a cost of $10 each, to use in remarking section corners in the county. Three bids were presented for supplying coal to the county and low bids were accepted.

Billboard Taxes

A proposal from the Lloyd Thomas company for an appraisal of county buildings was tabled by the board, after a brief discussion in which it was indicated that the appraisal would be valuable for insurance purposes.

During the session, Wells Bowers, chairman, was authorized to call an informal meeting of county assessing officers in December before taxes are spread on the rolls, so that uniform assessment policies can be followed. Bowers reported this was done with success in other Michigan cities.

The board chairman also reported that he had been informed at the convention of the State Association of Supervisors in East Lansing that Lower Michigan counties assess billboards as personal property, and also "jukeboxes."

Table Invitation

He also noted that the county soon will receive information on a base figure to use in assessing the Lakehead Pipeline in each of the townships, and also a formula for assessing drive-in theatres.

A report from the Michigan Economic Development committee on the Mid-Continent natural gas pipeline and the benefits to this area if it were routed through Upper Michigan, was heard. The report also outlined activities of the committee in compiling lists of potential users of natural gas. No action was taken.

The board tabled a letter inviting supervisors to participate in the convention of the State Association of Supervisors, and setting Schoolcraft County's membership fee at $20.

Session Ended

The board also heard and tabled a resolution from Genesee County proposing that the state legislature act to empower the chairman of a county board of supervisors to call a special meeting, in event of disaster or emergency, and proceed if necessary without attendance of all supervisors.

A report from the auditing committee on bills payable, a report on compensation insurance for Mrs. John M. Hewitt, jail turnkey, for injuries received in a fall, and from John S. Fackety, probate judge, on a convention attended in Charlebois, also were heard.

The board adjourned late Monday afternoon, after completing all business for the October session.

Protest On Telephone Service To Be Lodged With MPSC By Council

Manistique City Council Monday night at its regular meeting instructed William F. Hood, city attorney, to draft a letter of protest on telephone service in Manistique for presentation to the Michigan Public Service Commission.

In its action the Council directed the attorney to specify that (1) the city objects to improvements made here, stating that installation of the switchboard did not improve communications; (2) that service is not as good as prior to installation of the present switchboard, and (3) the city objected to the rate increase.

The Council cited that the General Telephone Company of Michigan had not installed automatic ringing devices as it had agreed, that telephone service in the city is marred by break-ins, cut-offs and failure of operators to answer when called back, and that telephone service to Gulliver was not good.

Traffic Survey

For the past several months the Manistique City Council has been attempting to secure improved telephone service in the city, and now also is protesting two rate increases. It previously had charged that the costs of telephone service were not warranted on the basis of service rendered.

The Council Monday night also agreed to hold an informal meeting, on call of the mayor, to discuss the city's policies on wage and salary increases for employees, and other benefits.

Other business before the Council was as follows:

Parking Limit

Instructed the city manager to obtain information on a traffic survey for the city, noting that stop signs should not be placed "indiscriminately."

Moved that a request from Malcolm Nelson for installation of a tourist motel sign on the lake side of Lake Shore Drive should not be granted because the state highway department has asked that no signs be erected on the street.

Heard a report from the city manager stating that sufficient data on regulations for municipally-owned, perpetual care cemeteries are not yet available. Cemeteries of this type are few in number and only a few regulations have been found on those investigated thus far, the city manager said.

Adopted a resolution setting assessments for improvements on Garden Ave.

Directed that a "no left turn" sign be placed at the intersection of River St. and E. Elm St., east of the World War monument, and that signs limiting parking be installed on the southwest intersection of Oak and Maple Sts. Councilmen noted that traffic at the Oak and Maple street corner is hampered by parked vehicles which block the view of motorists.

All Present

Heard an objection from Mr. and Mrs. Jacob G. Oberle on sidewalk improvements on Gero Ave. The Oberles contended that the sidewalk level is lower than their front lawn, that the appearance of their home and the lawn been damaged, and that a street was needed more than a sidewalk.

Councilmen explained that the sidewalk was built on petition of 51 per cent of the property owners and that it had been built on the accepted grade. The city manager and city attorneys were instructed to investigate.

Discussed the city recreation program briefly with Thor Reque, recreation director, to determine what programs for children could be provided with money available from the Woman's Club through sale of the youth center.

Discussed traffic control at the Cherry and Steuben intersections, but left the matter open until the manager obtains data on a traffic survey.

All councilmen were present for the session.

Bicycle Rider Is Hit By Car

Willard Garvin Jr., 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Garvin, 436 Delta Ave., received a minor foot injury at noon Monday when he was hit by a car while riding his bicycle.

City police report the auto was driven by Louis Landwehr, Manistique Rte. 1, who was making a left turn into a gas station at the corner of Deer and Chippewa.

The youth was riding between the sidewalk and a parked truck, police report, and was not seen by the driver until he was in front of the vehicle. The bicycle frame and one wheel were damaged.

Boy Scout Fund Drive Is Slated

The annual Boy Scout fund drive, under chairmanship of Carl Wedell and Roger Smith, will get underway Thursday, the Rev. Paul Sobel, Manistique Scout Commissioner, announces.

Wedell is serving as chairman for the advance drive and Smith will be in charge of personal solicitations. Treasurer of the fund drive is Roy E. Anderson.

Goal of the 1953 campaign is $900, the same as last year, Rev. Mr. Sobel reports.

Manistique, which this year has 167 Boy Scouts, is part of the Hiawathaland Council covering 14 counties in Upper Michigan and one county in Northern Michigan.

Among budgeted items for which local funds will be used are expenses of camps operating each summer and available for Scout use throughout the year, organization of materials for new Scout units, expenses of Scout camporees, circuses and rallies, insurance on camp buildings, and leadership training of volunteer workers in the Scout program.

Also included in the fund request is Manistique's share of the maintenance and operation of the council Scout office in Marquette, where, all individual records, and registrations are handled.

Andy Houston of Escanaba, full-time employee of the Boy Scouts of America, serves the Manistique area. ## Budget Of $110,000 Is Voted By Supervisors

Schoolcraft County's Board of Supervisors moved away from deficit financing, in regular session Monday morning, and adopted a budget of $110,699.55 for the 1954 fiscal year.

Last year the board adopted a deficiency budget of $113,239, a sum $2,539.45 greater than this year's budget appropriation.

Major increases in the budget adopted Monday were $1500 more for the tuberculosis fund, an added $500 for election costs, and a $775 increase for the county agricultural agent's travel costs.

Decrease Asked

Several decreases in budget allocations were effected this year. They include $2,000 less for social welfare, $500 less for the board of supervisors, $250 less for circuit court, a decrease of $500 in funds for the courthouse and grounds, and $250 less for the county clerk and register of deeds.

In adopting the 1954 budget, the supervisors accepted the report of their finance committee, with only minor revisions. They were to appropriate $200 instead of $100 to the U. P. Development Bureau for Lure Book advertising, to grant $200 instead of $125 to the U. P. Child Guidance Center in Marquette, and to include a $250 appropriation for advertising in the Top O' Lakes Chamber of Commerce publications.

On recommendation of G. Leslie Bouschor, county clerk and register of deeds, additional funds for these increases were made available through a decrease of $250 in appropriations for the offices Bouschor holds.

Hear Reports

In other action Monday morning the board authorized William Rodman to Manistique township, chairman of the building grounds committee, to settle timber and right of way claims with the Lakehead Pipeline company and Midwest Constructors Inc. To date claims of $91.81 have been allowed by the company for damage to timber outside the 60-foot right of way granted by the county.

The board also confirmed easements of $179.80 to permit use of a part of a forty of land, and of $115.80 for use of gun club property for right of way for the pipeline.

Reports heard and accepted by the board Monday morning were as follows:

A statement from W. H. Nerle, state inspector of jails, approving the county jail.

A report of the state auditing committee on 1952 records for Schoolcraft County.

TB Repayments

A report by Clayton D. Reid, county agricultural agent, that Michigan State College no longer will pay expenses of the agent between Alger and Schoolcraft counties, and explaining plans for engaging a home demonstration agent for the county.

Reid also reported, in response to a query from a board member, that the possibility of obtaining a veterinarian in Schoolcraft County is "almost hopeless" because there are only 1400 head of cattle in the county. A veterinarian needs about 5,000 head to have a profitable business, Reid said.

The board Monday also directed that the health director, Dr. R. A. Tearnan of Munising, and the chairman of the board's health committee, confer with the prosecuting attorney to determine whether the county can seek reimbursement for tuberculosis hospitalization costs from patients with insurance, or who are financially able to pay their own expenses. They also were asked to determine method of collection if repayment can be claimed.

Brooklyn Man Seeks Use Of County Airport

A proposal to lease the Schoolcraft County airport for use in chartering planes and giving pilot instruction was presented to the Schoolcraft County Board of Supervisors at its regular session Monday afternoon by Harold Ingraham of Brooklyn, Mich.

Ingraham, who said he operates an automobile agency in the community near Jackson, proposed that the county board lease a hangar and office space at the airport to him in return for upkeep of the port facilities and provision of emergency plane service at the field.

Supervisors explained that the county already has a contract with Edward Jackson of Manistique for the airport and that it would first consult with him, and also determine what legal implications might arise if the county were to accept his proposal. They pointed out that state money as well as county money is invested in the airport.

The Brooklyn man informed the board that he had already spoken with the present contract holder and that Ingraham's plan was acceptable to him.

Ingraham said he already owns two planes and would purchase another for training purposes. He said he had been flying since 1942 and that flying is his hobby, not a business.

He further stressed that the airport would continue to be open to other planes and that no charge would be made except for overnight stays and like costs. Ingraham also indicated that he would not be able to take action, if the proposal were accepted, until after the first of the year.

Supervisors went on record as favoring stimulating activity at the airport, and told Ingraham he would be informed of the board's decision, after consultation on the board's authority to lease the space.

Rotarians Hear About Hospital

Manistique Rotarians Monday heard a discussion of Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital by Kenneth D. Moberg, hospital administrator, at its regular noon luncheon.

Moberg noted that the hospital in Manistique has been able to pay its own way and is not dependent on outside financial aid. The administrator also pointed out that with the new addition 40 patients can be cared for, as compared with 32 previously.

Due to facilities available at the hospital, a number of patients come from communities outside Schoolcraft County, including Garden, Engadine and Gould City, Moberg stated.

CARD OF THANKS

A. T. Sohlberg Rotary Speaker

A. Theodore Sohlberg, president of the Delta County Historical Society, was the speaker at the Monday noon meeting of the Gladstone Rotary club.

The speaker undertook briefly to justify the existence of the society by explaining its aims and objectives and the program that has been undertaken.

A very considerable amount of material relating to the pioneers and the pioneer era has already been assembled and is being transcribed in form for binding. Recordings have also been made of the experiences of pioneers, as told by themselves, to be filed in the archives of the Society.

A start has been made but much, very much remains to be done and Mr. Sohlberg emphasized the need for the support of all citizens for the undertakings of the organizations.

The speaker prefaced his remarks with a report on the recent meeting of the Michigan Historical Society at Dearborn sponsored in part by the Ford Motor Co., which this year observes the 50th anniversary of its founding. Some of the meetings were held at Fairlane, the fabulous home built by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford and which is now the repository of the archives of the Ford Motor Co., and its founder. Other meetings were held at Dearborn Inn and at Clinton Inn, the latter being one of the restorations in Greenfield Village.

Lee Wells of Milwaukee, E. E. Klumpmeyer Jr., Chicago, and W. T. S. Montgomery, Jacksonville, Fla., were guests at the meeting.

Tom Beaton, newly elected governor of the 20th district of Rotary, was present and received sincere congratulations of his fellow members. The district he represents covers the Upper Peninsula east as far as Manistique and Wisconsin as far west as the Minnesota boundary and as far south as Neenah, Wis.

The memory of these acts will long remain with us.

In This Corner

With Ray Crandall

Saturday was a great day for the home teams in Upper Peninsula high school football. Not a single home team lost a decision on the gridiron Saturday afternoon or night. Posting victories before home crowds Saturday were St. Joe, Gladstone, Iron Mountain, Ontonagon, Bessemer and Newberry. . . . Norway settled for a tie with Niagara.

Former St. Joe Trojan Pete Kutches set up Wyoming's winning touchdown against Colorado A & M Saturday at Laramie. Kutches took a pass for 17 yards to the Colorado one-yard line and the Cowboys pushed it over in two plays to win 21-14 before a crowd of 13,171. . . . Wyoming's left halfback, Joe Mastrogianni, completed seven passes in seven throws for 158 yards and one of the Cowboy touchdowns.

Crystal Falls did not offer too much in the way of opposition on the gridiron for St. Joe Saturday night. But the visitors displayed several promising candidates for the U. P. Golden Gloves tournament to be held here this winter. Left tackle Joe Torreano was throwing some effective uppercuts in the line before he was tossed out of the game by official Red Williams. Torreano was the cause of Trojan Bill Lancour's heave-ho from the game. He had tagged center Arnold Henniksen with some hefty blows and Lancour jumped to his team mate's aid, only to be spotted on the top of the pile and tossed out of the game.

Escanaba's showing at Iron Mountain was the best this season for the winless Eskimos. They took the field in a determined manner and proceeded to throw their weight around with authority.

When the first half ended the Eskimos had a 6-6 deadlock and Iron Mountain backs had been flung for a minus eight yards on the ground. But the Eskimos were unable to maintain the pace and failed to match the Mountaineers in the second half.

One of the most serious handicaps for Escanaba this season is lack of speed in the backfield. While their blocking hasn't always been the best, the Eskimos are most often stymied because their backs are unable to turn on the speed necessary to clear the line and break through the secondary.

Frank Rodman of Hermansville says the Texas Cowgirls will be back in the Upper Peninsula in mid-November. Dempsey Hovland is in charge of the girls' basketball team again this year. They opened their tour early this month in Canada. With the team this year is Mrs. Audrey (Hank) Williams, whose husband wrote the currently popular "Your Cheating Heart."

Ex-Army And War Hero Makes Pro Grid Debut

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Arnold Galiffa, who won 11 sports letters at West Point and later became the grenade-throwing sensation of the Korean War, is anxious to get a taste of pro football—and chances are it'll come next Sunday.

The New York Giants make their home debut against the Chicago Cardinals at the Polo Grounds and Coach Steve Owen promises to unveil—for a few plays at least—his new quarterback from the fighting fronts who he says "will be another Otto Graham."

Out Of Service

The 6-foot-2, 195-pound one-time steel hand from Donora, Pa., became a Giant over the weekend after his discharge from the service. He watched his teammates lose their third straight game in Washington Sunday, bowing to the Redskins 13-9.

"I'd never seen pro football from so close before," the dark-haired former All-America quarterback said. "Gee, they're big guys and they hit mighty hard. College ball was never like this."

In February 1951 Galiffa won recognition for his grenade marksmanship while the Americans were pushing the Communists back north.

Tossed Grenades

A dispatch from the front lines said Galiffa became the marvel of his comrades by hurling grenades effectively for 75 yards, twice the distance the book says the explosive can be thrown accurately.

At West Point, the swarthy, 26-year-old janitor's son won four letters in basketball, four in baseball.

ball as a first baseman and three in football. He was All-America his last year in 1949.

Name George Walter Highland President

George Walter was elected president of the Highland Golf Club at the annual meeting held recently. He succeeds Merton Jensen.

Ben Douglas was re-elected vice president and Einar Beck secretary-treasurer. Renamed as directors were Beck, Jensen, Walter and Douglas. Other directors are Grover Lewis, Earl Brown, C. E. Johnson, Hazen Hengsh and Ernest Flath.

Planned improvements for the club and course were discussed following the election of officers.

Organized Baseball Faces Court Test

WASHINGTON (AP)—Organized baseball goes before the Supreme Court today in what is perhaps the most significant legal contest in the history of the national sport.

The court has been asked to decide whether baseball is an illegal monopoly in restraint of trade. If it decides that it is, the ruling could mean the end of big league baseball as it is now played.

But this is an extreme possibility. Even if the court were to rule against baseball, there are

Midwest Grid Notes

CHICAGO (AP)—Midwest football briefs. . . .

Minnesota—Watch J. C. Caroline and Mickey Bates" is the word for the Gophers as they prepare for Saturday's big game against Illinois. The soph speedsters of the Illini were watched by Minnesota scouts against Ohio State Saturday. Halfback Bob McNamara suffered an arm injury in the victory over Northwestern but it is not believed serious.

Illinois—The Illini suffered no serious injuries Saturday and should be at full strength for Minnesota. Coach Ray Eliot worries their trouncing of Ohio State will "go to their heads."

Wisconsin—Jim Miller may give Gust Vergetis a tussle for the Badgers' first-string quarterback job. He's been looking good in practice, running and passing. The Badgers make their Big Ten debut against Purdue Saturday.

Marquette—Coach Lisle Blackburn is emphasizing defense as the Hilltoppers prepare for Arizona Friday night. They drilled in sweat suits Monday.

Iowa—The Hawkeyes practiced in secret Monday for their non-conference contest with Wyoming. They hope to tighten their pass defense, which has allowed opponents to complete 53 per cent of their tosses to date.

Northwestern—Guard Dan Kachaturoff suffered a chest injury in the 30-13 loss to Minnesota and may not be available for the Michigan game. Halfbacks Jim Troglio and Bob McKeiver and guard Fred Nessel also continue on the injured list.

Michigan—Coach Bennie Oosterbaan is worried about blocking "We'll be in trouble every Saturday unless it improves," he told the Wolverines after analyzing the 14-13 victory over Iowa.

Michigan State—The Spartans suffered a rash of cuts and bruises in beating Texas Christian but none of the injuries will prevent action against Indiana.

Notre Dame—Offense as the keynote as the Irish prepared for their home opener against Pitt. Ralph Guglielmi, Joe Heap, Johnny Latner and Neil Worden still comprise the first-string backfield.

Ohio State—Dave Leggett has moved up from fullback to quarterback, replacing the injured John Borton in the pilot position as drills get underway for Penn. Borton suffered a broken nose and ankle sprain against Illinois.

Purdue—The Boilermakers have lost tackle Ray Pacer, who is being inducted into the Army. Sophomore guard Dick Murley has been shifted to Pacer's position.

Indiana—Sophomore Tommy Hall has replaced the injured Tom Dailey at guard for the Hoosiers, who meet Michigan State Saturday. Dailey suffered a bruised knee in the 21-20 verdict over Marquette.

TYING PASS—Michigan Back Duncan McDonald (23, lower right), goes to his knees after tossing a short pass to End Gene Knutson (86), upper left, for the tying touchdown in fourth period (Oct. 10) against Iowa in Ann Arbor, Mich. The touchdown and subsequent kick won the game for Michigan, 14-13. (AP Wire-photo)

Braves Get Ready For Final Home Grid Game

GLADSTONE — The Gladstone Braves started preparations for the invasion of Stephenson Saturday afternoon, the last home game of the season.

The final game will be at Escanaba the following Saturday.

Most of the boys came out of the Ishpeming game in good shape although a few were injured slightly. These were Capt. Duane Peterson, Tom Brewer, Jack Beach, Bob Sandstrom, Rod Kelley and Ed Farrell. Francis Peterson also has a leg bruise, but all are expected to be in shape by Saturday.

Tom Brewer turned in an outstanding job on defense Saturday. Coach Don Pfotenbauer's chart showing he made 25 tackles to lead his team in this department.

Praise also goes to Jack Beach and Roger Lamberg for their defensive play at end and to halfback Roger Carlson.

Jim Bratonia and Joe Corbiel led Gladstone's ground attack with over 100 yards each Saturday.

Except for a short period in the second quarter the coaching staff was well pleased with the work of their charges last weekend.

Picks Weakness In MSC Picture

EAST LANSING (AP)—Texas Christian Coach Abe Martin put his finger on one item that worried Michigan State coaches after his squad nearly upset the Spartans last weekend.

"If Michigan State has any weakness," Martin said, "it's in the defensive backfield."

Texas had the speed to race downfield on equal terms with Michigan State defenders. And the Texans had the height to outjump the smaller MSC "pony backs" for passes—an advantage that paid off with touchdowns for the Horned Frogs.

There may be some reshuffling of the "pony" backs in the next few games as coaches try some experiments.

One thing to watch for will be a pairing of some of the taller defensive specialists with the fast "ponies" in an effort to reinforce the first team speed and hitting power with some height on the defense.

The regulars who worked most of the afternoon against Texas Christian were excused from all but the lightest drills Monday.

JUMPS TOO HIGH

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—The Harvard football team came through its 28-26 victory over Colgate last Saturday unscathed but the Crimson cheerleaders weren't so lucky. Sophomore Dick Levenson of Dayton, Ohio, suffered a fractured ankle after he leaped into the air to urge the team to victory.

All three maintain that the 1922 decision no longer applies. They contend the game has been greatly changed since then by such development as intricate farm systems and radio and television coverage.

Replying to the suits, organized baseball said in its briefs that the antitrust charges are without basis, that the specific questions raised in the three actions have nothing to do with interstate commerce.

Cage Officials Will Ignore Minor Fools

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A decision by basketball officials to turn their backs on minor fools Monday was termed "the greatest shot in the arm intercollegiate basketball has received since the elimination of the center jump."

That was the way E. L. Romney, commissioner of the Mountain States Conference, felt about the officials' action at their annual two-day basketball clinic here.

The National Association of Collegiate Commissioners approved the by-passing of "fringe fools and borderline violations in the back court" that have little effect on the "continuity of play" during the 1953-54 season.

This means officials will overlook such things as a defensive swipe at the ball that winds up as a slap on the wrist of the opposing dribbler.

Michigan Pass Attack Better

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Signs of a reviving pass game gave added hope to Michigan football fans today. Despite the scare at the hands of Iowa, Wolverine passes clicked enough to make the difference.

Quarterback Lou Baldacci, his sprained thumb now healed, pitched for one touchdown, and thirded for one touchdown. McDonald quarterbacked the other. In addition, several other good passes put Michigan in a threatening position.

Baldacci connected on seven of his 11 tries for an even 100 yards. Halfback Tony Brannoff hit on one of two, McDonald on two of three, and fullback Bob Hurley completed both of his attempts.

Only halfback Ted Kress was off the pace. He completed three of nine for 26 yards. Three others were intercepted.

As a team, the record was 15 of 27 for 186 yards and the difference in the nip-and-tuck ball game. End Bob Topp proved himself an able receiver, gathering in seven passes for 111 yards and one touchdown. End Gene Knutson snared three for 26 yards and the other touchdown.

Monday the Michigan squad heard scout reports on Northwestern's 13-30 loss to Minnesota and began to set up defenses against the Wildcats who invade Saturday.

Sandy Saddier, featherweight champion now in the Army, was a basketball star in high school.

Ready For Court Fight To Reinstate Athletes

LANSING (AP)—Attorneys prepared today for a court fight to reinstate 10 Michigan high school boys who lost their athletic eligibility by accepting merchandise awards in summer sports contests.

The legislative committee on Administrative Rules Monday suspended the high school athletic eligibility rule under which the youths were penalized, but the committee conceded that it had no power to reinstate the boys.

George C. Dean and Paul E. Siegel of Hastings, attorneys for the boys, said flatly "We will appeal to the courts."

At the same time, Dr. Clair L. Taylor, state superintendent of public instruction, who suspended the boys and refused to reinstate them, asked the attorney general whether the committee legally could cancel the eligibility rule.

Taylor also asked Millard to rule on what effect the suspension of the rule would have on the eligibility of the 10 students. There was disagreement in the legislative committee on whether or not the suspension automatically reinstated the athletes.

Sets Up Committee

Dr. Taylor also set up a 17-man committee to consider a new eligibility rule.

He refused to comment directly on the lawmakers' suspension of the rule, but declared:

"My previous decision refusing reinstatement had at heart the interests of the 4,500 other boys in Michigan who adhered to the rules, not just the 10 involved in this farce. I will wait and see what my committee recommends—unless I am forced to do otherwise by legal action."

The new rules committee will meet Oct. 10 and 20.

In the meantime, there was a void where for 30 years or more Michigan has had a strict rule accepting high school athletes accepting from schools awards worth more than $2 and against accepting merchandise awards from anyone.

Gil Turner Growing Into Middleweight

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Because Gil Turner is losing his girlish figure, the 23-year-old fighter's aspirations to the welterweight crown of Kid Gavilan may be scrapped forever.

Still ranked as a leading contender for Gavilan's title, Turner nevertheless tipped the beam at 156 while plodding to a 10-round decision over Italo Scorticini at Detroit last Wednesday night. And he's doubtful whether he can ever make the 147-pound welterweight limit again.

"And we won't try to find out until it's necessary," said Manager George Katz Monday. Katz, noting that Gil is working to make 155 pounds for his 10-rounder with Johnny Bernardo at the arena here Thursday night, said he doesn't expect another welterweight title shot before next summer anyway.

ceded it had been reluctant to suspend this rule but said that Dr. Taylor had the power to promulgate a new rule immediately. If he does not, it said, local boards of education can "meet the problem in their own good judgment."

Rule Is Rapped

The committee called the rule "harsh" and "arbitrary" because it made no concessions to "mitigating circumstances." The rule provides an automatic suspension for one year for all found guilty.

The Michigan Association of School Administrators has supported Dr. Taylor in his refusal to reinstate the youths. Members of the legislative committee reported considerable public demand for reinstatement of the boys.

The committee named by Dr. Taylor to write a new rule includes: Charles A. Semler of Benton School Athletic Association Council; Albert L. Deal, Martin superintendent of schools; Miles Robinson, Menominee superintendent of schools; William Wickens of Midland, state commander of the American Legion;

Mayor LeMire Named

Wendell Foltz, of the Battle Creek Enquirer News and president of the Michigan Sports Writers Association; David C. Pence of Pontiac, former president of the Michigan State Bar; Rep. Clark E. Davis (R-Vermontville).

Robert E. LeMire, mayor of Escanaba; the Rev. Leon Manning, pastor of the Hastings First Methodist Church; Charles E. Forsythe, state high school athletic director, and Francis P. Kelly of the State Civil Service Department.

Other members are the principals of Grand Rapids South, Detroit Cooley and Kalamazoo Central high schools; the Mt. Pleasant school superintendent; Herbert Auer, president of the Muskegon Junior Chamber of Commerce; and the Rev. Fr. Jerome MacEachin of East Lansing, diocesan school superintendent for the Roman Catholic Church.

Six of the penalized youngsters are from Hastings, two from Escanaba, one from Menominee and one from St. Clair.

Notre Dame Keeps Top Spot In Grid Ratings

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Notre Dame remained at the top of the collegiate football world today—the third straight week the Irish have ruled the roost.

The weekly Associated Press poll of the nation's sportswriters and sportscasters gave the South Bend squad 1,226 points despite the fact that it was idle last Saturday. The burden of proof was on the other teams and none of them impressed the experts enough to jump ahead.

Notre Dame collected 74 first places on the ballots, compared to 57 for all the other teams combined. The points were tabulated by the usual method of 10 for first, nine for second and so on.

Spartans Keep Second

Michigan State, which had to come from behind to lick Texas Christian, stayed in second place, but gathered only 14 first place votes, as compared to 15 last week and 977 points compared to 1,022 in the second poll.

The biggest change in the elite was the disappearance of Ohio State from the top 10. The Buckeyes, shattered by underdog Illinois, 41-20, last Saturday, plummeted to a tie for 18th with Mississippi Southern, the little school that beat Alabama at the start of the season.

Illinois, for its part in the biggest upset of the season, rose to No. 9 in the rankings.

Maryland, which many observers think is the top team in the South, rated third, only 16 points behind Michigan State. The Terps were a distant fourth last week.

Michigan Fifth

UCLA was fourth and Michigan fifth. The rest of the first 10 was rounded out, in order, by Georgia Tech, Duke, Baylor, Illinois and West Virginia.

Southern California, with a disappointing 13-13 tie with Washington, also dropped out of the first 10. West Virginia, undefeated and 40-14 victor over Washington and Lee, took over the vacant spot.

Georgia Tech made the most notable gain of the teams that stayed among the leaders. The Ramblin' Wrecks were 10th a week ago, but finally got their offense going against Tulane and moved up to sixth.

The top ten (first place votes in parentheses):

1. Notre Dame 74 ..... 1226
2. Michigan State 14 ..... 977
3. Maryland 21 ..... 961
4. UCLA 8 ..... 755
5. Michigan ..... 537
6. Georgia Tech ..... 490

Ring Heads Crack Down On Champ Archie Moore

WASHINGTON (AP)—Archie Moore, the aging St. Louis veteran, was under instructions from the National Boxing Association today to defend his light-heavyweight championship within the next few months or lose it by default.

In its fall ratings issued Monday night, the NBA pointedly contended it was responsible for Moore's chance to win the championship in the first place. It said he should feel obligated to risk his title in a bout with Harold Johnson of Philadelphia, logical contender in that division.

Fred J. Saddy, chairman of the NBA ratings board, noted that only persistent NBA nudging prompted Joe Maxam of Cleveland to take on Moore in a title bout, which Moore won handily.

In its ratings, the NBA took out after one other boxer, Percy Bassett of Philadelphia, the interim featherweight champion, and told him to put his title on the line or face NBA action stripping him of it.

Bassett holds only an interim title because featherweight champion Sandy Saddler is in the Army. But even so, Bassett is rated no higher than fourth in his own division behind Saddler, Willie Pep and Redtop Davis.

Two Sure Champs

Rocky Marciano, the heavy-weight champion, and Jimmy Carter, the lightweight title holder, were given strong votes of confidence by the ratings board, which could see no logical contender in either division.

Dan Bucceroni of Philadelphia was given second place among the heavyweights in a four-man field rated as outstanding boxers. Bucceroni, a Johnny-come-lately among the top level fighters, risks that position in a go against Jim Slade of New York Wednesday night.

Ezzard Charles of Cincinnati, the former heavy-weight champion, edged up into third place ahead of Roland LaStarza of New York.

Sports Roundup

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—The most heartrending figure in the land as the cold winter days approach is the football expert. He has a far-away look in his eyes—that of a man who has seen his life work disrupted and plumb ruined by a willful little group of rule changers.

Under the current chaotic conditions he can have only the foggiest idea of who will lick whom on any football Saturday. He can only guess — and hope — and he knows he is going to begin hearing from his readers by the basketful, if he hasn't already.

The unfairness of it all is what rankles. When they slugged the two-planet system and went back to what one prominent coach called "horse and buggy football," practically everybody even remotely connected with the game was polled on the probable effect of the change. Coaches, educators and even players were asked their opinions.

But did anyone consult the man whose career was to be jeopardized? If so, it escaped notice. When an Illinois trounces an Ohio State 41-20, to whom can he appeal? His plight, we feel, is strikingly set forth in this defini-

Even Artificial Pearls Are Produced In Sea

WASHINGTON—Pearls on a costume jewelry counter may be artificial, but like real ones, their gem qualities come from the sea.

True pearls are manufactured by oysters or mussels. Artificial pearls, says the National Geographic Society, are glass or plastic beads coated with essence d'orient—pearl essence—made from the silvery scales of small fish.

Before World War II, the scales used came from the bleak, a slender little carp found in the rivers of Europe. Since the war, the industry has found a way to use herring scales as well.

Young Herring Used

Young herring from the Bay of Fundy have been diverted from the breakfast-table to artificial pearl factories in nearby Maine and Canada. Similarly, part of the Norwegian herring catch goes to a Norwegian factory which can produce 12,000 necklaces, earrings and bracelets a week.

Artificial pearls can be good copies in color and shape, but they invariably lack true pearl lustre. Real luster comes from light reflected and refracted by many layers of iridescent nacre, products of years of oyster labor.

When they are manufacturing pearls, oysters are intent upon comfort, not necklaces. Finding a foreign object within their shells, they cover it with smooth nacre to prevent irritation.

The first fine imitation pearl produced in Western Europe was made in the 17th century by Jacquin, a rosary maker of Paris. Coating the inner surface of a thin, opalescent glass sphere first with parchment sizing, then with pearl essence, he filled the hollow middle with white wax.

Near-Panic Resulted

His product and the imitation-pearl business it inspired did not disturb the natural pearl industry, but the world gem market almost went into panic in the 1920's when Japan began to export cultured pearls in quantity. Fortunately experts found ways, including X-ray, to tell the difference between the wholly natural and the cultured products.

The Japanese learned pearl culture from the Chinese, who had used the process as early as the 13th century. Dating from this period are small Chinese-made pearl images of Buddha. The first perfectly spherical cultured pearl was produced by the Japanese in 1909.

Basically, it is a simple matter to stimulate the formation of a cultured pearl. The culturist merely puts a small object into the shell of an oyster or mussel and lets the bivalve do the rest.

But in actual practice, the pearl is apt to be of poor quality unless the tiny "factory" is carefully fed, nursed through sicknesses and guarded in underwater cages. So onerous and expensive is the process that the Japanese have no competitors outside their country today.

HOW ABOUT A RECOUNT

MINISINK, N. Y. (AP)—This is a rather sparsely populated town. Four polling inspectors presided at a recent primary election, and six votes were cast—those of the inspectors and two other persons who showed up. The counting, which didn't take long, showed three Republican and three Democratic votes.

"WHAT'S YOUR OPINION OF SEALSIN COATS?"—Nothing fit for recording, judging by this elephant seal's expression. He's being interviewed by Alton Everest, associate director of Moody Institute of Science, on Guadalupe Island, elephant seal preserve maintained by the Mexican government off the coast of lower California. Everest is recording seal "language" for a new "Sermons From Science" movie.

Maybe It Depends On How You Wear 'Em

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—There's discrimination between sexes under the new Pennsylvania sales tax. If a woman buys a garter belt for herself, it's exempt from the tax. But if a man buys garters for himself, he must pay the one per cent levy.

Revenue Department officials won't give a reason for the distinction between the gadget used to hold up women's stockings and the gadget used by men.
